Lesson 14: Hebrews 11 – The Necessity of Faith

1. What is faith? (Verse 1)

Substance = confidence, assurance, giving substance to Evidence = proof or proving

These are for things hoped for and NOT seen. Romans 8:24 says that hope that is seen is not hope.

2. What is the result? (Verse 2)

3. After listing a series of people of faith, the writer summarizes in verse 13.

They died in _____.

Had they received the promises?

Having seen them afar off they were a _____, they e _____ them and c _____.

4. Another summary is given in verse 39.

What did they all obtain?

How does that relate to verse 2?

Had they received the promises?

5. Faith is essential because without it what's impossible? (Verse 6)

What are the two essential beliefs one must have?

6. Now back to verse 3 and the survey of people of faith. For each of these write out 1)What they believed without seeing, 2) How they acted on it, 3)What testimony resulted? I've given you the "who" with the verse number in parenthesis.
