

Developing Your Biblical Worldview
"Who Am I?"

1. The Bible speaks of us as being composed of _____, _____, and _____.
(See 1 Thess 5:23; Hebrews 4:12)
2. We commonly picture the soul (or psyche) as being made up of _____, _____, and _____.
3. What are some of the consequences of the fall on our being?
Body:

Soul:

Spirit:
4. How does God reach our spirit?
(Romans 8:16; 1 Cor 2:16; John 16:13)
5. When we "hear" an inner voice, how do we know its source? (1 John 4:1)

Mind

6. Definition and discussion of the phrase "The Noetic Effects of the Fall"
(Romans 1:18-21; Romans 12:2; Eph 4:18, 23; 1 Corinthians 1:18-23, 2:14; 2 Corinthians 4:3-4; 2 Cor 10:5)

What are some of the implications of the fall on the "mind"?

Will

7. After the fall, what is the condition of our will? What is meant by "free will"? What is the relationship of motivation with the will? (Rom 3:10 ff; Phil 2:13; Ezek 36:26, 27)

Emotions

8. How did the fall affect our emotions? (Deut 28:47; Romans 1:21, 26, 28-32; Galatians 5:19-24; 1 Peter 1:22-23;

9. Guilt feelings vs. true guilt
(1 Tim 4:2-3; 1 Cor 8:12; 1 John 3:4; Rom 3:19 See also countless passages on forgiveness.)

10. The solution to all of the above is in learning to live by the Spirit rather than the flesh. The old sinful patterns of thinking and responding need to be replaced by new patterns. Habits can be changed but it takes time and practice and the application of truth through the power of the Holy Spirit. (Eph 4:22-24; Romans 13:13-14)
